

MAGAZINE INFORMATION & ORDER FORM

SHINE brightly and Sparkle are relevant, engaging magazines written and produced by GEMS Girls' Clubs. These magazines encourage, support, and equip girls with the tools they need to understand the world around them. Written for 4th-6th grade girls, SHINE brightly will remind your girls of the capital 'T' Truth: that they matter, and are LOVED. Sparkle, written for 1st-3rd grade girls, will provide your girls with the building blocks they need to learn about God and others. Both magazines are packed with fun and meaningful activities, stories, DIY projects, and articles.

While the magazines used to be a part of GEMS Club curriculum, they are now a separate resource for parents and leaders. We highly encourage parents to continue the club's subscription and purchase the magazines for their girls for the following reasons...

- 1. The Grown-Up Insert: Each issue includes a tear-out grown-up insert, which contains an encouraging letter from the GEMS Executive Director, Cindy Bultema, a set of prayers to pray over girls (written by Lee Nienhuis), questions about the magazine to help grown-ups engage with girls, and other featured resources.
- 2. Reading Comprehension and Development: These magazines are specifically written for young readers, and will increase your girls' reading comprehension and will engage even the pickiest of readers.
- 3. Print Engagement: Studies from 2017 show kids actually WANT to read print resources, because they offer a physical interaction for kids that online resources don't.
- 4. Faith Elements: These magazines are founded in God's Word and offer girls the opportunity to grow and develop in their faith lives outside of church or Club.
- 5. Fun! Every issue contains fun, relevant, and interesting content that will keep your girls engaged from start to finish.
